SUBJECT: Request for Reconsideration of Petition to Revive Patent Application
10/065,988

Dear Attorney Woods,

We have received your letter of April 4, 2007. This letter is to request your reconsideration to revive our patent application 10/065,988. There were some miscommunications in result of the delays. No where it has been any intention to delay or abandon the application. Please kindly re-examine the past and present situation and grant our request. Please allow me to point out a sequence of some events:

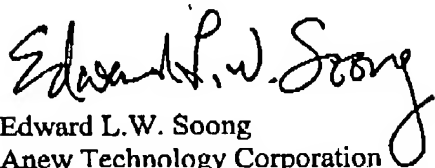

1. On December 20, 2005, we sent a fax (cover attached) to examiner Chih-Ching Chow in response to her Office Action after talking to her a few times. However, we were told to send to her personal fax number, 1-571-273-3693. It never reached her.
2. In the early part of 2006, we reconnected with examiner Chow. At that time the application was still pending and we were discussing the application with examiner Chow and reached an agreement with respect to the claims. We knew all long that our claims were patentable, have sufficient value, and justified the financial expenses.
3. On April 3, 2006, in conversation with examiner Chow, we were instructed, in order to continue processing the application, we would need to abandon it first, then revive it. Please review examiner Chow's Interview Summary (attached) that stated it as follows: " Mr. Soong agrees to abandon this case for now, and he will revised it later. Mr. Soong prefers to have this case to be assigned to examiner Chow when this case is revised since Chow has spent a lot of time working on this case. Examiner Chow has informed her SPE Ms. Wei Zhen, hopefully this case will be reassigned to Chow when it's revised." There was no intention to abandon it on our part, but to continue.
4. Later, we were told by another examiner (working on our another application) that we should be able to just withdraw its holding pattern. Hence, on April 21, 2006, we submitted a request (attached) to withdraw its holding pattern. Again, we were actively pursuing it.
5. On October 28, based on your guidance, we mailed in a petition and submitted a fee of $750.00 to revive it in hope that we can continue.

As you can see, we never had any intention to abandon the application through out the years. We have been in contact with examiner Chow since 2005 and we were trying hard to explain our claims. Later, we were told by examiner Chow to agree to abandon it so we can revive it and continue. In addition, she is willing to complete the case. Examiner Chow can attest to all these for us. Again, there was no intention to abandon the application, but to further pursue it till its completion.

Please kindly review and reconsider our petition. Please inform us of any other actions that we need to take to revive this application.

We thank you for your attention on this matter.

Sincerely Yours,

Edward L.W. Soong

April 21, 2006

Dear Commissioner,

We hereby request to withdraw the holding of abandonment for application 10/065,988.

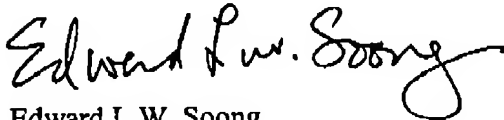

The reason that we failed to response to the USPTO's Office Action was we did not receive it at all. It could be due to our move into a new address.

Examiner Chow took the initiative to contact us. We have discussed the application case further and reached an agreement with respect to the claims. We would like to pursue further to reach a conclusion of our application.

Please kind grant our request so the case can be processed further. We would also hope that Examiner Chow could continue working on this case for a speedy process.

Please let us know if any further information and/or action are required.

Sincerely Yours,

Edward L.W. Soong
